FLOYD'S JOKE CORNER

A little boy was practicing his violin in the living room while his father was trying to read the newspaper in the den.

The family dog was lying in the den, and as the screeching sounds of the little boy's violin reached his ears, he began to howl loudly.

The father listened to the dog and the violin as long as he could. But as the screeching and howling grew louder and louder, his patience wore thin.

After a few minutes more, the father jumped up, slammed his newspaper to the floor and yelled above the noise, "Seriously, can't you play something the dog doesn't know?"

Keep it goofy,

Floyd

LUCKY DOG OF THE MONTH

Believe it or not – May 2008's Lucky Dog of the Month is Ripley!

Ripley is a very handsome teacup Maltese who clocks in under two pounds! Just over three months old, Ripley enjoys backpack straps, squeaky lobster toys and basking in the sunshine.

Just as friendly as he is cute, Ripley makes friends everywhere he goes - sealing the deal with a kiss. A very small dog with a very big personality, Ripley fears nothing and no one. That's right; nobody's big enough to scare this little fella!

Congratulations, Mr. Ripley. You're one lucky little puppy!
